

The new EPI student council organizes a fund raising bingo

The administration of the EPI Unit for Hospitality Management and Tourism was proud to introduce the board of their first student council. The eager students have organized a fundraising bingo to finance their first big project, a school yearbook.

The evening of bingo will take place on Friday, May 18 at Club Caiquetio in Paradara starting at 8:30 P.M.; doors open at 6:00, with the entrance free including a sheet of cards costing 10 Arubian florins. There will be ten games, with prizes for the games range from 150 to 1500 Arubian florins for the final game, and there will be various door prizes such as weekend stays at some resorts, dinners for two, and gift certificates for local shops. For more information and tickets call telephone numbers 525-8710 or 525-8711.
